Position: Humanities Teacher, Upper School (grades 6-8)

Chapel Field Christian Schools is seeking full or part time faculty for their upper school humanities department. Courses may include World Literature, US Literature, Rhetoric, World History, and US History. Chapel Field Christian Schools' mission is to partner with parents to cultivate a joyful community of students who love the truth, pursue wisdom and virtue, and live for the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. Applicants must be qualified not only to serve in an academic capacity, but must also be ready to serve the Lord Jesus Christ in the execution of the mission of school, a mission aimed not merely at forming the mind, but also the heart and soul of the students.

Qualifications: Master's degree (or bachelor's degree with equivalent field experience) in one or more of the areas of intended instruction is preferred, but other interested applicants are encouraged to apply. Experience with or training in the art of classical education is preferred. All applicants must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, be able to live in accordance with the school's honor code, and be able to sign in affirmation the school's statement of faith.

Qualified applicants should send a resume and cover letter (including testimony of faith and church affiliation) along with the name and contact information of two references to employment@chapelfield.org.
